

Bryant Park Tower

New York, NY

Residential component of a new mixed-use development in Manhattan's Times Square consisting of 93 luxury condominium units on the top ten floors of the 45 story hi-rise accessed by dedicated street level entrances with segregated services and utilities including on-site parking garage on Sixth Avenue, one block from Bryant Park.

Architect

Nobutaka Ashihara Architect, New York, NY

Interior Designer

Kondylis Design, New York, NY

Client

MG Hotel LLC

Features

- condominium lobby at 100 West 39th Street finished with a honed quartz floor and natural cleft quartzite walls, a custom wood ceiling, as well as glass panelled elevator lobby
- condominium corridors feature zebrawood millwork and rope accent lighting
- all condominiums include zebrawood entry doors, bamboo flooring, white marble kitchen counters and bathroom vanities as well as Italian porcelain bathroom tile

Services

Development Management