

Columbia University Law School

Jerome L. Greene Hall
New York, NY

Renovation and new expansion of landmarked Columbia University Law School's Greene Hall.

Architect

Ennead Architects LLP, New York, NY

Client

Columbia University, New York, NY

Features

- new "front door" which integrates the existing building, known as the "Toaster" (designed by Max Abramovitz of Harrison & Abramovitz) into the campus
- new 39 foot high atrium lobby
- grand stairway connecting the entry floor to the renovated lounges and the new café on the second floor
- renovation of the first floor student offices and public areas
- new gallery and student lounge with an elaborate elliptical skylight
- cafeteria/kitchen facilities
- renovations of lecture halls
- renovation of the rare books library

Special Interests

Project received an Architecture Award from the AIA New York Chapter, completed two months ahead of schedule.

Services

Construction Management

