

Mount Sinai Health System COVID-19 Support

New York City

Client

Mount Sinai Health System, New York City

Challenges

- CNY is working with Mount Sinai Health System to renovate and expand the hospital's facilities to accommodate new patients affected by the COVID-19 virus as well as the medical professionals and staff treating these patients.
- Together with hospital administration and staff, CNY is working to leverage existing medical facilities and infrastructure where required to maximize resources and create the new facilities as quickly as possible.
- CNY is providing specialized healthcare facility construction expertise, project management, real-time design assist, cost control, and schedule maximization. All work is managed to minimize disruption to current hospital operations.
- CNY is embracing the COVID-19 challenge. As a healthcare facility construction specialist, CNY is ready, willing and able to assist hospitals and other healthcare organizations meet the unique and critical facility requirements presented by the COVID-19 virus.

Services

- Construction Manager
- General Contractor
- Design Assist
- Cost Analysis
- Scheduling
- Infection Control